1. Purpose & Scope

Magma General Insurance Limited (Erstwhile Magma HDI General Insurance Company Limited) (herein referred to as the ‘Company’) is committed to provide to all employees a work-environment conducive to professional growth with equal opportunity to all. For the same, it is important to promote a work environment free from sexual harassment and one which promotes dignity, respect and fair treatment.

In pursuant to the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and Rules made thereunder [herein after referred to as “POSH Laws”], the Company has framed this Policy on Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment at workplace (herein referred to as the ‘Policy’). The purpose of this Policy is to lay down the Company’s approach to deal with incidences of Sexual Harassment at Workplace and to ensure that any incidence of Sexual Harassment is dealt with appropriately, sensitively and expeditiously in line with the guidelines as prescribed under the POSH Laws and the Policy.

Any form of Sexual Harassment whether overt or covert; intentional or unintended is unacceptable and therefore is prohibited and regarded as misconduct in terms of this Policy.

It is the responsibility of all those connected with the Company to comply with the Policy.

2. Objectives

Provide a framework enabling creation of:

- a. Work environment free from fear, reprisal, coercion, discrimination and harassment of sexual nature.
- b. Expressing zero tolerance to any Sexual Harassment at Workplace through prevention, prohibition, redressal and deterrence of acts of Sexual Harassment.

3. Applicability

This Policy applies mutatis mutandis to all individuals who are employed in the Company, either engaged in permanent, contractual or temporary capacity (in any office which includes regional / branch / on-site/off-site etc.) in the Company. As per the POSH Laws, the Policy also applies mutatis mutandis to the vendors, visitors or any other associates of the Company.

6. Internal Committee

The Company shall constitute an Internal Committee [“IC”] for the purpose of conducting inquiry in the matter of Sexual Harassment.

Since the Workplace are located at different locations, there will be a central Internal Committee which will look into complaints from all the locations. The minimum composition of the Internal Committee shall be as given below:

- (i) Presiding officer who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at the Workplace from amongst the employees;
- (ii) Not less than two members from amongst employees preferably committed to the cause or who have had experience in social work or have legal knowledge;
- (iii) One member from amongst non-governmental organisations or associations committed to the cause or a person familiar with the issues relating to sexual harassment:

Provided that at least one-half of the total members so nominated shall be women. The tenure of the presiding officer/members shall not exceed three years or such other tenure as may be prescribed by the POSH Laws from time to time.

Please refer to Annexure-2 for the details of the presiding officer / members of the Internal Committee. The information regarding IC members and their details will be made available on the website of the Company along with the procedure of filing complaint.

A. Content of Complaint:

The complaint shall contain all the material and relevant details concerning the alleged Sexual Harassment including the name(s) of Complainant, Respondent, designation, location of the incidence(s) and Respondent, date(s) of incidence(s), time, witnesses if any, etc.

For the sake of convenience, the Complaint Form is annexed as “Annexure -3”. The Complainant shall submit six copies of the Complaint along with supporting documents and the names and addresses of the witnesses to the IC.

B. Interim Relief:

During the pendency of the inquiry, on a written request, if made by the Complainant, the IC may recommend to the Company as to: -

- (i) Transfer the Complainant or the Respondent to any other Workplace.
- (ii) Granting of leave(s) as appropriate, up to a period of three months (as may be prescribed by the POSH Laws from time to time) in addition to the leave that the Complainant would be otherwise entitled to.
- (iii) Restrain the Respondent from assessing/reporting on Complainant’ work performance and accordingly change in reporting hierarchy if the Complainant is directly reporting to the Respondent.
- (iv) Or grant such other relief to the Complainant as may be prescribed by the POSH Laws.

C. Conciliation

- (i) Before initiating an inquiry under this Policy, the Internal Committee may, at the written request of the Complainant take steps to settle the matter between the Complainant and the Respondent through conciliation. The Internal Committee will attempt to resolve the raised issue through mutual discussion between the Complainant and the Respondent. The conciliation process will also be documented and shall be the part of the records.
- (ii) The Internal Committee will record the terms of settlement acceptable to the Complainant and the Respondent and file a closure report with the CHRO/ HR department to take further action as recorded in the settlement. Copies of the settlement shall be provided to the Complainant and the Respondent. All persons involved in the conciliation will maintain the dignity and confidentiality of the persons involved. The Complainant will have the right to withdraw from the conciliation process by stating the reasons for withdrawal in writing to the Internal Committee.
- (iii) No monetary settlement shall be made as a basis of conciliation.
- (iv) Post the conciliation process, after the settlement is arrived at, no further inquiry shall be conducted by the Internal Committee.
- (v) Where the Complainant informs the IC that any of the terms or conditions mentioned in the conciliation settlement are not complied with by the Respondent, then the Internal Committee shall take appropriate next steps.

D. Formal Complaint Resolution Procedure:

- i. The Internal Committee, while maintaining strict confidentiality, shall, where the Respondent is an employee take immediate necessary action to hold an inquiry in accordance with the provisions of service rules applicable. The Respondent shall be provided a copy of the complaint within 7 (seven) working days from receipt of the complaint. The Respondent shall file his / her reply to the complaint along with his list of documents, and names and addresses of witnesses, within a period not exceeding 10 (ten) working days from the date of receipt of the complaint.
- ii. The Complainant shall be provided with a copy of the Respondent's reply. The Internal Committee may also take inputs from the witnesses named by the parties and any other persons whosoever deemed appropriate.
- iii. The IC shall make inquiry into the Complaint in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- iv. The IC may terminate the inquiry proceedings or give an ex-parte decision on the complaint, if the Complainant or Respondent fails, without sufficient cause, to present themselves for three consecutive hearings convened by the IC. However, such termination or ex-parte order may not be passed without giving a notice in writing, fifteen days in advance, to the party concerned.

- v. The Complainant or Respondent shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the IC.
- vi. In conducting the inquiry, a minimum of three members of the IC including the Presiding Officer, shall be present.
- vii. Members of the IC shall after examination of the complaint and the response of the Respondent, and all evidence placed before it, including witness statements conclude the inquiry. Where both the parties are employees, the parties shall during the course of the inquiry be given an opportunity of being heard and a copy of the findings shall be made available to both the parties enabling them to make representation against the findings before the Internal Committee. On the completion of the inquiry, the IC shall provide a report of its findings to the Company within a period of ten days from the date of completion of the inquiry and such report be made available to the concerned parties. The inquiry shall be completed within a period of ninety days. The Internal Committee shall keep complete documentation of the complaint, inquiry and its report. The IC / officer designated for this purpose, or the Presiding Officer shall ensure that all documents shall be kept securely.
- viii. Where the Internal Committee arrives at a conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has been proved, it shall recommend to the Company to take necessary action as appropriate as per the provisions of the applicable service rules and POSH Law. The Company shall act upon the recommendation within sixty days of its receipt.
- ix. Where the Internal Committee arrives at a conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent has not been proved, it shall recommend to the Company in the report as to no action is required to be taken in this matter.
- x. Where the Internal Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the Respondent is malicious or the Complainant has made the complaint knowing it to be false or the Complainant or witness has given any false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document it may recommend to the Company to take necessary action as appropriate as per the provisions of the applicable service rules and POSH Laws. However, mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof need not attract action against the Complainant.
Further that the malicious intent on part of the Complainant shall be established after an inquiry in accordance with the procedure prescribed, before any action is recommended.
- xi. Timelines and detailed processes are articulated in Annexure -4.

E. Recusal from inquiry:

IC member shall inform the IC committee for any potential conflict of interest while conducting the inquiry. The IC member shall be excused to be part of inquiry wherever there

7. Appeals

Any person aggrieved from the recommendations of the IC or non-implementation of such recommendations may, within ninety days of the recommendations, prefer an appeal to the court or tribunal in accordance with the provisions of the service rules applicable to the said person.

8. Third Party Harassment

Where Sexual Harassment occurs as a result of an act or omission by any third party or outsider, who is not directly on the pay-rolls of the Company, it shall be out of the jurisdiction of the IC. However, the Company and the persons in charge, upon reporting of the case, may take all steps, necessary and reasonable to assist the aggrieved person in terms of support and preventive action.

9. Savings

- a. Nothing contained in this Policy shall prejudice any right available to the aggrieved person, Complainant, Respondent, Company, IC or prevent any person from seeking any legal remedy under any law for the time being in force.
- b. In case of any discrepancy in the Policy, the provisions of relevant POSH Laws shall prevail.
- c. The Company reserves the right to modify and, or review the provisions of this Policy, so as to meet the requirement of the provisions of any applicable law.
- d. This Policy is drafted in compliance of the present POSH Laws and therefore all the implied procedure, provisions [present or if amended from time to time] shall be followed & applicable mutatis mutandis. Also, the mentioned timelines, limitations etc. in the Policy shall be deemed to be replaced & updated with the new enactment(s), amendment(s), legal provision(s), ruling(s) & likewise as and when pronounced and effective.
- e. IC shall have all powers as provided under the POSH Laws and shall discharge their duties & dispose the complaints accordingly.
- f. If any provision of the Policy is held to be illegal or invalid or amended for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions hereof, but such provision shall be fully severable, and the Policy shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provision had never been included herein.
